

Painting Tsarouchis and Other Stories:

Landscapes, Still Lives and Athenian Scenes in Crayon and Paint

Solo Exhibition by Kostas Papatriantafyllopoulos

About the Exhibition

In Painting Tsarouchis and Other Stories, Papatriantafyllopoulos transforms light, atmosphere, and everyday moments into poetic visual narratives. Through works depicting Athens, streetviews and still lifes, the exhibition reveals a deeply lyrical approach to painting, shaped by his studies at the Athens School of Fine Arts and the École Nationale Supérieure des Beaux-Arts, as well as by the lasting influence of Yannis Tsarouchis and the Byzantine tradition of Fotis Kontoglou. Today, he is regarded as one of the last significant living representatives of the Paris School within modern Greek painting.
